

What is the purpose of this research study?

This research study is being conducted in over 20 countries. We will evaluate and compare the safety of two asthma medications. The purpose of this study is to learn about the safety of two asthma medications. During this 26 week study, safety information will be collected and analyzed in adults and adolescent patients with asthma.

For more information about this research study, please contact us at

Abington Pulmonary and Critical Care Associates - 215-517-1200

*For minors, only a parent or guardian should call and must consent to the minor's participation in this research study.

The person(s) depicted are model(s) used only for illustrative purposes.

Living with Asthma?

Learn more about our medical research study comparing two medications to treat asthma in adolescents and adults.